Orion Engineering hires Joe Gilbert as civil/structural design lead

THEODORE, Ala. – Orion Engineering announces the addition of Joe Gilbert to its civil/structural engineering group.

Gilbert comes to Orion with over eight years of industrial related design experience in chemical and biotech manufacturing, energy technology, and refinery, food and pharmaceutical facilities.

“We are excited to have Joe and Shila join the Orion family,” said Danny Vaughn, director of projects at Orion.

Gilbert is a native of Montgomery and graduated from Auburn University with a degree in civil engineering.

“We look forward to the experience and knowledge that Joe brings to Orion Engineering as civil/structural design lead, and know that he will help us to continue to provide quality design services to our clients,” said Wade Everett, Civil/Structural Engineer at Orion.
